No Trains. The gentlemen who told us the new trains would be put on this branch were evidently talking through their hats, as the spring schedules went into effect Sunday, and if a day passenger train has visited Lancaster no one has heard of the fact. The day trains over on the K. D., have been made earlier, but our present train will continue to pass down at 11:29 a t has been doing heretofore. There is only one way to get the day trains, and that is togo before the general manager and explain to him the tenfold advatages the company would reap by running their trains to Rowland. The Commercial Club should take up the matter. It can be done.

Water Works.

A number of tax-payers have petitioned the committee, which was appointed by the City Board of Counci to report on the advisability of establishing water works, to report favorably. The most potent reason urged for favoring the enterprise, is the fact that insurance rates would be reduced one-third, which would re-pay the tax levied for the works. Beside this, the comfort and convenience derived from the system is beyone estimation, when compared to the present condition of affairs. Again, the Sanitary condition of the town would be improved. when we are possessed of the means to remove filth and clean the town generally. Statistics show that disease is less prevalent in towns with work: than in those without them. We hope that the Boerd will consider the matter deliberately before taking action.

Notice to Trustees.

Under instructions from the State Superintendent two Trustees were elected in each School District in Garrard County last October: the one receiving the greatest number of votes to qualify as the regular trustees on July 1 1899, and the one receiving points about the cultivation of this next to the greatest number, to qualcrop by casting their eyes westward as lify at once to fill a vacancy supposed to be then existing. Since that election the Court of Appeals has decided that there was no vacancy at that time, but that the old Trustees hold over one year longer. Hence, the mai receiving next to the greatest vote qualified through mistake and was, in in Heslery. reality, never a Trustee. Therefore, the one who received the GREATEST NUMBER OF VOTES at the October election will be recognized by me as the legal Trustee for the ensuing term and he will according'y qualify some time during the month of June. 3t. Recruits for the Philippines. The Recruiting Officer in Lexington has just received orders to enlist a number of white men for service in the regiments now in the Philippine Islands. These men will be sent direct to San Francisco from Lexington, and from there to Manila. This will make a fine trip for able bodied men unmarried, and not over 35 years o age. It will be a chance to see the world, and possibly make a trip entirely 'round it. Persons desiring to enlist should apply at once to the re-cruiting officer in Lexington, in order to be in time. may 4-tf.

June Number of The Delineator Is called the early Summer Number, and combines an immense amount of anthoritative and applicable advice as to what is newest and most beantiful in the world of Fashion,—including special illustrations of Bridle Costumes.—with a profusion of sparkling Literary features, Social, Household and Departmental hints and suggestions and Fancy-work detail. The story A box of oranges. By Anna Robesen Browd, recounts in sprightly fashion the exciting incidents attending the solution of an enigmatical gift. A Perfect Traveling Outfit, by Clare Bunce, is a particularly seasonable topic. The descriptions of Commencement days in College News, by Carolyn Halsted, are filled with a delightful college atmosephere. Girls' Interests and Occupations, by Lafayette McLaws, is characterized by the usual yest and good humor. Of a more distinct Domestic character are the articles, A Talk to Mothers, by Edna S. Witherspoon, and Frozer Novelties, by Amelia Sulzbacher. The Departments Fancy Stitches and Embroideries by Emma Haywood, Social Observances, by Mrs. Fraak Learned, The Dressmaker, The Milliners Crocheting, Knitting, The Latest Books, ets., etc., yield a rich grist of indispensable information. THACKERY ON DEATH.

The following is taken from a letter of condolence written by Thackery to Mrs. Proctor on the death of her mother, shortly before Thackeray's death. The letter is found in the biographical introduction to "Denis Duval," the twelfth in the valuable blographical edit.on of Thackeray's complete works published in the United States by Harper & Bros., and shows the great novelist as he was at heart, earnest and sublime; not the cynic, the satirist that so many have considered him. The introduction to the thirteen volumes of this new edition constitute the only biography in existence of Thackeray. "Thinking of death," says Thackeray, "is thinking of God inscrutable, immeasurable, endless, beginningless, supreme, awfully solitary. Little childreu step off this earth into the infinite and we tear our hearts out over their sweet, cold hands and smiling faces, that drop indifferent when you cease holding them, and smile as the we deplore the old, who have had buried so many others and must be weary of living-it seems time for them to go-for where's the pleasure of staying when the feast is over, and the flowers withered, and the guests gone? After Six Years of Intense kind things about several people who Suffering, Promptly Cured

Obstinate sores and ulcers which refuse to heal under ordinary treatment soon become chronic and deepseated, and are a sure sign that the By S. S. S. entire circulation is in a depraved condition. They are a severe drain upon the system, and are constantly sapping away the vitality. In every case the poison must be eliminated from the blood, and no amount of external treatment can have any effect. There is no uncertainty about the merits of S. S. S.; every claim made for it is backed up strongly by convincing testimony of those who have been cured by it and know of its virtues by experience.

Mr. L. J. Clark, of Orange Courthouse, Va., writes: "For six years I had an obstinate, running ulcer on my ankle, which at times caused me intense suffering. I was so disabled for a long while that I was wholly unfit for business. One of the best doctors treated me constantly but did me no good. I then tried various blood remedles, without the least benefit. S. S. S. was so highly recommended that I concluded to try it, and the effect was wonderful. It seemed to get right at the seat of the disease and force the poison out, and I was soon completely cured." Swift's Specific—
